

AUTHOR VISIT

STEVEN B. HARRIS

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 16 | 6:30 PM

MERCER COUNTY DISTRICT LIBRARY

303 N. MAIN STREET | CELINA OH

Purchase a copy for $15.00 on site.

Reign Falls Down is also available at Amazon, Barnes & Noble, BookBaby, iBook, Baker & Taylor, and other platforms in paperback and e-book formats.

Synopsis

While Harrison Marks's relationship with his father was always a challenge, it plunges into further despair when he discovers his father has been accumulating wealth using illegal business methods. As Harrison watches the events with his father unfold, he and his pregnant wife become targets of a government investigation placing him and his family on an undesirable path facing charges and financial ruin.

The struggle, however, can't end until Harrison can find a way to maintain his innocence, be the anchor his family needs, and forgive his estranged father who doesn't think he's done anything wrong. Most importantly, if the spiritual battle raging within Harrison is not won, it stands to tear his marriage apart.

About the Author

First-time author Steven B. Harris lives in Celina, Ohio with his wife of 27 years, Jill. Together, they have two adult children, Allison and Collin.

Harris graduated from The University of Toledo with a degree in Communication. He has been employed by Crown Equipment Corporation for 5 1/2 years.